We are looking for a dedicated and enthusiastic Clerk to our LGB. This flexible part-time role involves working closely with the Headteacher and Chair to ensure the smooth and effective running of the LGB. Meetings are usually held in the evening every half term.

Yoxall St Peter's Primary School is a popular and vibrant village school at a very exciting time in its long history. As a founding partner in the local alliance, the National Forest Teaching School, Yoxall St Peter's is also the first primary school to join the dynamic John Taylor Multi-Academy Trust.

The school is a happy and welcoming place to work, where children thrive and adults work well in teams. Visits to the school are warmly encouraged by calling the school office on (01543) 472236.
