“The headteacher has a clear vision of providing a high quality education in school”
(Ofsted 2019)

We are looking for a dedicated and enthusiastic Lunchtime Supervisor to join our team to assist with supervising children during lunchtime, both on the playground and in the dining hall

Yoxall St Peter's Primary School is a popular and vibrant village school at a very exciting time in its long history. As a founding partner in the local alliance, the National Forest Teaching School, Yoxall St Peter's is also the first primary school to join the dynamic John Taylor Multi-Academy Trust.

The school is a happy and welcoming place to work, where children thrive and adults work well in teams. Visits to the school are warmly encouraged by calling the school office on (01543) 472236.
